

HISTORY & CULTURE OF PUNJAB

Paper – (History & Culture of Punjab 18th & Early 19th Centuries)

Time Allowed : 3 Hours

Maximum Marks : 45

Note : Question No. 1 is compulsory. Attempt one question from each unit. Try to write in your own words to the extent possible.

1. Answer any five of the following short type questions in 25-30 words :

- (i) Who was the son of Banda Bahadur ?
- (ii) Who was Nawab Kapur Singh ?
- (iii) What do you know about the Dal Khalsa ?
- (iv) What was the childhood name of Ranjit Singh ?
- (v) Explain the Rakhi system of the Punjab.
- (vi) What do you know about Maharaja Kharak Singh ?
- (vii) Which were the two main terms of the treaty of Amritsar of 1809 ?
- (viii) Who was Chand Kaur ?
- (ix) Name the Governor-General of the British India during the first Anglo-Sikh war.
- (x) Who was the builder of the Ram Bagh Garden ? 1×5=5

UNIT – I

2. Briefly discuss the achievements of Banda Bahadur and his place in the history of the Punjab.

10

3. Describe in detail the origin and growth of misls in the Punjab. 10

UNIT-II

4. Critically assess overall administration of Maharaja Ranjit Singh in Punjab. 10

5. Discuss in detail the Anglo-Sikh relations in Punjab upto 1839. 10

UNIT-III

6. Account for the main factors that led to the final decay of the empire established by Ranjit Singh in Punjab? 10

7. Examine in detail the annexation of the Punjab by Lord Dalhousie. 10

UNIT-IV

8. Describe in brief the development of literature and forms of art in the pre-partition Punjab. 10

9. On the map of the Punjab, locate any six places and also write explanatory notes on any two of these :

Lohgarh, Sirhind, Multan, Sialkot, Ambala, Ludhiana, Peshawar, Ferozepur. 6,4